Did you know...?

The month of February used to have 29 days, and the month of August only 30. But, when the Emperor Augustus came to power in the Roman Empire, he decided to take one day from February (because it is a cold month in the northern hemisphere) and to add it to the month named after him (also adding an extra official day to his summer)!

MARDI GRAS IN SYDNEY

Sydney Gay and Lesbian Mardi Gras (SGLMG) is the non-for-profit member-based organisation that organises the Sydney Gay and Lesbian Mardi Gras Parade and Festival as well as a number of other events throughout the year.

SGLMG exists primarily to develop the Sydney Gay and Lesbian Mardi Gras for the benefit of Sydney's LGBTQI community, the enjoyment of a wider audience and as a global beacon of diversity, acceptance and LGBTQI rights.

In short, their purpose and action for the Sydney Gay and Lesbian Mardi Gras is to inspire the world to love each other by celebrating the power and beauty of diversity

If you would like to learn more about Sydney Gay and Lesbian Mardi Gras, visit their website <http://www.mardigras.org.au> !
