About Cambridge Preparation

B1 Preliminary

Ideal for beginner to intermediate level students, the B1 Preliminary qualification will assist students who want to communicate using English in practical, everyday situations.

Successful candidates will have proof that they are able to use their English language skills to deal with everyday written and spoken communications.

Some examples include: being able to read simple books, textbooks, and articles; write simple letters on familiar subjects; and make notes during meetings and lessons. The B1 Preliminary qualification can be used for education and work purposes, and is accepted by over 8,000 educational institutions, businesses, and government departments from around the world. It can also give students access to higher level English language qualifications such as the B2 First, C1 Advanced and C2 Proficiency.

Passing this qualification will improve your work, study and travel prospects.

B2 First

B2 First is one of the most popular Cambridge exams and is suited for upper-intermediate level students.

Successful candidates will have proof that they are able to confidently, and effectively communicate face-to-face; follow the news; and write clear and detailed English, expressing opinions from different points of view.

Students can use this qualification as an entry to many foundation, pathway, or pre-sessional courses. It also provides assurance that students are able to live, work, and study independently in English-speaking countries.

Passing this qualification will improve your work, study and travel prospects.

Cambridge Preparation course is delivered face-to-face for 20hrs per week at both Perth & Sydney campus locations with a maximum class size of 18 students.

C1 Advanced

Ideal for advanced-level students, the C1 Advanced qualification is proof of a high level of achievement in English for students who hold it.

Students preparing for university or professional life will be best suited for this qualification. The C1 Advanced qualification is accepted by over 8,000 educational institutions, businesses, and government departments from around the world.

Successful candidates will be able to display the ability to follow an academic course at a university (or equivalent) level; communicate effectively at a professional level; and express themselves with a high level of fluency.

Passing this qualification will open doors to international travel, work and study.

C2 Proficiency

Ideal for advanced and high-level students, the C2 Proficiency course offers the highest level of Cambridge qualifications. It signifies an accomplished mastery of the English language for students who hold it.

Successful candidates will have proof that they are able to study at the highest level, including Masters and PhD programmes; negotiate and persuade effectively in a professional setting; understand complex pieces of writing; talk about complex and sensitive issues; and effectively answer difficult questions.

Passing this qualification will open doors to international travel, work and study.
